This intensive one week course in International Commercial Arbitration is offered at post graduate level. Participants will be taught the principles and practice of international commercial arbitration, including all major forms of arbitration and related dispute settling mechanisms such as Domain Name Arbitrations and WTO. Participants will gain the ability to appear in or act as an arbitrator in such arbitrations in different contexts.

The course assumes graduate knowledge of law either from a law faculty or some other discipline, such as economics. This course is accredited for Post Graduate Law studies and can also be done in conjunction with the Master of Legal Studies course designed for non lawyers to obtain the desired legal background.

The substantive part of the course comprises a series of lectures covering the fundamentals of international commercial arbitration. They follow and analyse legal concepts and issues arising during the course of an arbitration. During the second half of the course we will examine arbitration under Bilateral Investment Treaties and Free Trade Agreements and other specialist areas such as maritime arbitration.

Participants will also take part in a series of practical group workshops, under the guidance of experienced arbitrators. Students will be given practical training in the conduct of an international arbitration and will discuss a range of problems which may arise in the course of conducting an international arbitration.

The Sponsor Law Firms are Blake Dawson, Clayton Utz, DLA Phillips Fox, Freehills, Mallesons Stephen Jacques and Corrs Chambers Westgarth.

Dinner generously hosted by Law Society of New South Wales.
